

Camp is coming, Camp is coming!

What Should I Bring?

Prescription Medication

Cold Medicine – Just in case you get a cold

Toiletries – Shampoo, soap, toothpaste, toothbrush, etc.

Laundry Detergent – laundry facility provided

Bathing Suit: One piece bathing suits for females, swim trunks for males

Beach Towel for the pool – by the way we have a brand new pool for 2005!

Bathing Towels & Washcloths

Favorite Pillow

Spending money

Phone Cards

A Travel Fan if you have one. They're nice to attach to your bunk.

Musical Instruments – If you play the guitar, flute, or anything portable, BRING IT!

Radio/CD Player & Music Collection – be sure to label everything w/ your name

Sleeping Bags aren't needed, but if you'd like to bring your own go ahead!

Books & Magazines – For your time off of course!

Flashlight – this is a must! You'll always need one.

Stationary Supplies – The more mail you send the more you'll get back!

Stamps

Sunscreen & Bug Repellent - It's Camp!

Guide Dog Supplies for our 4 legged staff!

Camera – Don't bring your $500 Sony Digital. We're not responsible for lost or stolen items.

CLOTHING:

Tan, khaki, or olive green shorts

T-shirts & tanks Tops – No vulgar or obscene messages or pictures & nothing that is inappropriate to wear amongst children and fellow co-workers

Hiking Boots

Sneakers

Sandals

One or two dress outfits for our Award Ceremonies and Dinner Dance Parties

Rain Gear – umbrella, poncho, or raincoat

Jeans, pants, or sweatsuits

Sweatshirts or a jacket

The camp provides sheets, pillows, pillowcases & camp towels. Meals are provided, but if you'd like to bring specific drinks or snacks feel free to do so. To our Aussie's & Kiwi's be sure to bring Maramite/Vegamite, we don't have it in the US! Call me if you have any questions!